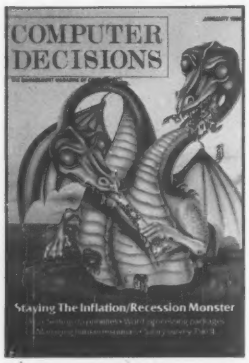
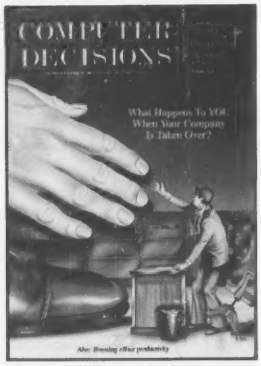
Annual Index of Articles—1980





Author/interviewee

B

Bartling, Dr. J. Q., Strong trend to DBMS confirmed, July, p. 90

Bernett, William A., Long life for your tapes, Mar., p. 81

C-D

Cheney, Paul H., You CAN merge dp and wp, Oct., p. 110

Davis, Perry J., Shrinking gracefully: How dp copes with a company downturn, May, p. 94

L

Landerkin, James, Political obstacles to DBMS, Sept., p. 64

Lasden, Martin, What comes first? Smart ways to set up dp priorities, Jan., p. 56; Edp insurance: Finding the right words, Feb., p. 72; Selling systems by computer, Feb., p. 100; Effective project management, Mar., p. 49; Keep your data entry up to date, Apr., p. 51; Have terminal, will travel, May, p. 70; MIS/dp budgets: How much? How far ahead? July, p. 24; Should MIS report to the president? Aug., p. 54; Games played between users and providers, Oct., p. 72; Managing programmers to work harder and happier, Oct., p. 34; Recycling displaced, dissatisfied pros, Nov., p. 36

Lucas, Lola, The new Zip code: Business boon or 9-digit nightmare? June, p. 66

M

Mandell, Mel, What happens to dp/MIS executives when the company is taken over? Apr., p. 30; How to avoid outgrowing your system: Capacity management fields performance dividends, Part III, May, p. 64; Coping with seasonal peaks, Aug., p. 22

Matta, Khalil F., Save tape, save dollars, Oct., p. 121

Miles, Mary, Versatile system plays watchdog at medical center, Jan., p. 110; Productivity quadrupled via CAD, Mar., p. 94; Disaster recovery update, July, p. 72; Women in management, Aug., p. 90

McCarter, Pender M., Report on transborder data-flow policies, Sept., p. 92

P-R

Pottruck, David S., How to keep "distributed" dp pros happy, Sept., p. 90

Ruth, Stephen R., Is your data center 20 percent overweight? Feb., p. 26

S

Seaman, John, Cutting downtime with network control and diagnostics, Aug., p. 68; Coping with the coming big changes—Part I, Sept., p. 70; Coping with the coming big changes—Part II, Oct., p. 88; Data-comm hardware: Now you get more for less, Nov., p. 52; Make or buy...Software, processing, maintenance, and facilities management, too, Dec., p. 42

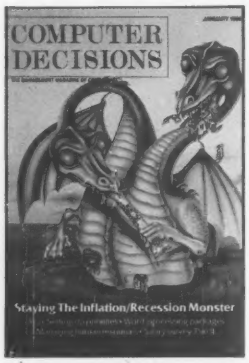
Secrist, Lois Shaw, How to keep users happy and keep your sanity, Feb., p. 93

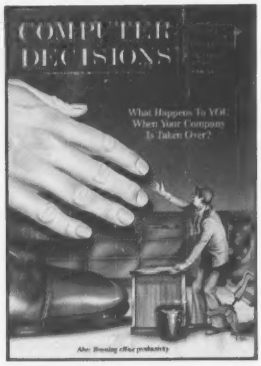
Simmons, Gerald (interviewee), The capture, care and cost of a good dp professional, Jan., p. 108

Slepicka, Kenneth L., Save tape, save dollars, Oct., p. 121

Snyders, Jan, Salary Survey: How do you stack up? Part II, Jan., p. 42; Word-processing packages for cpus, Jan., p. 79; Taking the drudgery out of documentation, Mar., p. 74; The pursuit of happiness, Apr., p. 42; How to avoid outgrowing your system: Software can extend your hardware! Part II, May, p. 46; Success in software, June, p. 71; How to charge users, July, p. 62; Women in management, Aug., p. 90; Computer-based planning packages, Sept., p. 24; Managing programmers to work harder and happier, Oct., p. 34; Productive packages for manufacturers, Nov., p. 78; Snyders on the software highlights of '80 and what

Annual Index of Articles—1980





Author/interviewee

B

Bartling, Dr. J. Q., Strong trend to DBMS confirmed, July, p. 90

Bernett, William A., Long life for your tapes, Mar., p. 81

C-D

Cheney, Paul H., You CAN merge dp and wp, Oct., p. 110

Davis, Perry J., Shrinking gracefully: How dp copes with a company downturn, May, p. 94

L

Landerkin, James, Political obstacles to DBMS, Sept., p. 64

Lasden, Martin, What comes first? Smart ways to set up dp priorities, Jan., p. 56; Edp insurance: Finding the right words, Feb., p. 72; Selling systems by computer, Feb., p. 100; Effective project management, Mar., p. 49; Keep your data entry up to date, Apr., p. 51; Have terminal, will travel, May, p. 70; MIS/dp budgets: How much? How far ahead? July, p. 24; Should MIS report to the president? Aug., p. 54; Games played between users and providers, Oct., p. 72; Managing programmers to work harder and happier, Oct., p. 34; Recycling displaced, dissatisfied pros, Nov., p. 36

Lucas, Lola, The new Zip code: Business boon or 9-digit nightmare? June, p. 66

M

Mandell, Mel, What happens to dp/MIS executives when the company is taken over? Apr., p. 30; How to avoid outgrowing your system: Capacity management fields performance dividends, Part III, May, p. 64; Coping with seasonal peaks, Aug., p. 22

Matta, Khalil F., Save tape, save dollars, Oct., p. 121

Miles, Mary, Versatile system plays watchdog at medical center, Jan., p. 110; Productivity quadrupled via CAD, Mar., p. 94; Disaster recovery update, July, p. 72; Women in management, Aug., p. 90

McCarter, Pender M., Report on transborder data-flow policies, Sept., p. 92

P-R

Pottruck, David S., How to keep "distributed" dp pros happy, Sept., p. 90

Ruth, Stephen R., Is your data center 20 percent overweight? Feb., p. 26

S

Seaman, John, Cutting downtime with network control and diagnostics, Aug., p. 68; Coping with the coming big changes—Part I, Sept., p. 70; Coping with the coming big changes—Part II, Oct., p. 88; Data-comm hardware: Now you get more for less, Nov., p. 52; Make or buy...Software, processing, maintenance, and facilities management, too, Dec., p. 42

Secrist, Lois Shaw, How to keep users happy and keep your sanity, Feb., p. 93

Simmons, Gerald (interviewee), The capture, care and cost of a good dp professional, Jan., p. 108

Slepicka, Kenneth L., Save tape, save dollars, Oct., p. 121

Snyders, Jan, Salary Survey: How do you stack up? Part II, Jan., p. 42; Word-processing packages for cpus, Jan., p. 79; Taking the drudgery out of documentation, Mar., p. 74; The pursuit of happiness, Apr., p. 42; How to avoid outgrowing your system: Software can extend your hardware! Part II, May, p. 46; Success in software, June, p. 71; How to charge users, July, p. 62; Women in management, Aug., p. 90; Computer-based planning packages, Sept., p. 24; Managing programmers to work harder and happier, Oct., p. 34; Productive packages for manufacturers, Nov., p. 78; Snyders on the software highlights of '80 and what they mean for you, Dec., p. 54

U-V

Upp, Scott, How to interview for scarce professionals, July, p. 54
Van Hise, William J., An inefficient labeling system is tagged out, Aug., p. 66

W

Whieldon, David, Staying the inflation-recession monster, Jan., p. 22; Can you stay up when bad power gets worse? Mar., p. 58; Converting from one mainframe to another, Mar., p. 28; Raising office productivity. . .through metering, Apr., p. 73; How to avoid outgrowing your system: Add-in, add-on memories—Part I, May, p. 34; Computers spearhead the energy counteroffensive, June, p. 24; Support from time-sharing services, July, p. 36; Update on printers and plotters, Aug., p. 35; How to pick "friendly" terminals, Sept., p. 38; Choosing the right turnkey mini supplier, Oct., p. 50; Mission imprecise? MIS/dp needs a charter, Nov., p. 94; Storing more in less space for fewer dollars, Dec., p. 58
Wilds, Thomas, The smart way to pick word processors, Jan., p. 71

Subject

Applying EDP
A Florida utility lights up its life, Jan., p. 90
"Buy" over "make" in loan management, May, p. 116
Cutting downtime with network control and diagnostics, John Seaman, Aug., p. 68
Finding oil: Mini data cartridges do big job, Mar., p. 100
Is your data center 20 percent overweight? Feb., p. 26
Versatile system plays watchdog at medical center, Mary Miles, Jan., p. 110

Capacity planning
Capacity management field performance dividends—Part III, May, p. 64
Capacity planning: Predicting your future computer needs, Feb., p. 64

COM
Take a closer look at COM, Dec., p. 92

Communications
Automating reports from field sales, Feb., p. 108
Put your communications style to the test, Your career, Dec., p. 88
Report on transborder data-flow policies, Pender M. McCarter, Sept., p. 92

Crts
How to pick "friendly" terminals, David Whieldon, Sept., p. 38

Cutting costs
An inefficient labeling system is tagged out, William J. Van Hise, Aug., p. 66
Labor costs cut 15 percent, Feb., p. 104
Make or buy. . .Software, processing, maintenance, and facilities management, too, John Seaman, Dec., p. 42

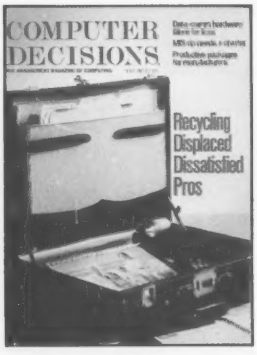
DBMS
Political obstacles to DBMS, James Landerkin, Sept., p. 64
Strong trend to DBMS confirmed, Dr. Judd. Q. Bartling, July, p. 90
W(h)ither DBMS? Feb., p. 46

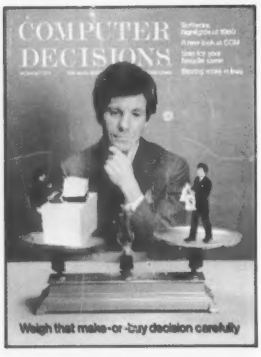
Data communications
Data-comm hardware: Now you get more for less, John Seaman, Nov., p. 52
Implementing a data-communications network, June, p. 46

Data entry
Keep your data entry up to date, Martin Lasden, Apr., p. 51

Data processing
How to keep "distributed" dp pros happy, David S. Pottruck, Sept., p. 90
Shrinking gracefully: How dp copes with a company downturn, Perry J. Davis, May, p. 94
The capture, care, and cost of a good dp professional, Jan., p. 108

Annual Index of Articles—1980





What comes first? Smart ways to set up dp priorities, Martin Lasden, Jan., p. 56
What happens to dp/MIS executives when the company is taken over? M. Mandell, Apr., p. 30
You CAN merge dp and wp, Paul H. Cheney, Oct., p. 110

Disaster
Disaster recovery update, Mary Miles, July, p. 72

Documentation
Taking the drudgery out of documentation, J. Snyders, Mar., p. 74

Dp managers
Recycling displaced, dissatisfied pros, Martin Lasden, Nov., p. 36

Dp managers, salaries
Salary survey: How do you stack up? Part II, J. Snyders, Jan., p. 42

Energy
Computers spearhead the energy counteroffensive, David Whieldon, June, p. 24

Graphics
One picture—worth many words, May, p. 106

Inflation
Staying the inflation-recession monster, D. Whieldon, Jan., p. 22

Information systems
Should MIS report to the president? Martin Lasden, Aug., p. 54

Insurance
EDP insurance: Finding the right words, Martin Lasden, Feb., p. 72

Leasing
Choosing the right turnkey mini supplier, D. Whieldon, Oct., p. 50

Management
Coping with seasonal peaks, Mel Mandell, Aug., p. 22
Impress top management and reap the rewards, Nov., p. 124
Managing programmers to work harder and happier, Jan Snyders, Martin Lasden, Oct., p. 34
Scribbling your way to the top, Oct., p. 127
Self-management: Key to managing your time, Sept., p. 114
Women in management, Jan Snyders, Mary Miles, Aug., p. 90

Management information
Baptists select down-to-earth cpu, Feb., p. 91
How to interview for scarce professionals, Scott Upp, July, p. 54
MIS/dp budgets: How much? How far ahead? Martin Lasden, July, p. 24
The pursuit of happiness—Make employee training pay off, Jan Snyders, Apr., p. 42

Memories
Add-in, add-on memories—Part I, David Whieldon, Apr., p. 73

Metering
Raising office productivity through metering, David Whieldon, Apr., p. 73

MIS/dp
Coping with tne coming big changes—Part I, John Seaman, Sept., p. 70
Coping with the coming big changes—Part II, John Seaman, Oct., p. 88
How to keep "distributed" dp pros happy, David S. Pottruck, Sept., p. 90
Mission imprecise? MIS/dp needs a charter, David Whieldon, Nov., p. 94
The new thrust in minis, Oct., p. 130

Office automation
The Holy Incantation, Oct., p. 124
Office automation: Still in the future? Nov., p. 27
Planning for office automation? Dec., p. 30

Office management
Help for harassed executives, May, p. 132
The learning business helped by new office system, May, p. 126

Office of the future
Office automation rolls along, Sept., p. 30

Planning
Computer-based planning packages, Jan Snyders, Sept., p. 24

Annual Index of Articles—1980

Portable terminals
Beer distributor's portable computers lift accuracy, Oct., p. 114
Have terminal, will travel, Martin Lasden, May, p. 70

Power
Can you stay up when bad power gets worse? David Whieldon, Mar., p. 58

Printers, plotters
Big gains from super printer/paper combinations, May, p. 124
Update on printers and plotters, David Whieldon, Aug., p. 35

Project management
Effective project management, Martin Lasden, Mar., p. 49

Service
Optical company prescribes new specs. . .for itself, Mar., p. 96

Show information
Worth your attention at NCC, May, p. 111

Software
Productive packages for manufacturers, Jan Snyders, Nov., p. 78
Shepherding $25 billion, Feb., p. 120
Snyders on the software highlights of '80 and what they mean for you, Jan Snyders, Dec., p. 74
Software slashes work by 80 percent, June, p. 68
Success in Software, Jan Snyders, June, p. 71
Software can extend your hardware! Part II, Jan Snyders, May, p. 46
The new zip code: Business boon or 9-digit nightmare? Lola Lucas, June, p. 66

Switching computers
Converting from one mainframe to another, D. Whieldon, Mar., p. 28

Systems
Automated design/drafting system brings growth, profits to Stearns-Roger, Mar., p. 94
Choosing the right turnkey mini supplier, D. Whieldon, Oct., p. 50
Expandable system insures smooth growth, Feb., p. 118
Selling systems by computer, Martin Lasden, Feb., p. 100

Tapes
Disk/tape management system: Can you manage without it? Nov., p. 120
Long life for your tapes, William A. Bernett, Mar., p. 81
Save tape, save dollars, Kenneth L. Slepicka and Khalil F. Matta, Oct., p. 121

Teleprocessing
French and English spoken here, June, p. 134

Timesharing
Don't make—buy! Support from timesharing services, David Whieldon, July, p. 36
In-house cpu chosen over timesharing, Mar., p. 90

User support
Games played between users and providers, Lasden, Oct., p. 72
How to charge users, Jan Snyders, July, p. 62
How to keep users happy and keep your sanity, Lois Shaw Secrist, Feb., p. 93

Word processing
The smart way to pick word processors, T. Wilds, Jan., p. 71
Word-processing packages for cpus, Jan Snyders, Jan. p. 79
You CAN merge dp and wp, Paul H. Cheney, Oct., p. 110

Title

A-B
A Florida utility lights up its life, Jan., p. 90
Add-in, add-on memories—Part I, David Whieldon, May, p. 34
An inefficient labeling system is tagged out, William J. Van Hise, Aug., p. 66
Automating reports from field sales, Feb., p. 108
Baptists select down-to-earth cpu, Feb., p. 91
Beer distributor's portable computers lift accuracy, Oct., p. 114
Big gains from super printer/paper combination, May, p. 124
"Buy" over "make" in loan management, May, p. 116

C
Can you stay up when bad power gets worse? David Whieldon, Mar., p. 58
Capacity management field performance dividends—Part III, May, p. 64
Capacity Planning: Predicting your future computer needs, Feb., p. 64
Choosing the right turnkey mini supplier, D. Whieldon, Oct., p. 50
Computer-based planning packages, Jan Snyders, Sept., p. 24
Computer power multiplied, Nov., p. 123
Computers spearhead the energy counteroffensive, David Whieldon, June, p. 24
Converting from one mainframe to another, D. Whieldon, Mar., p. 28
Coping with seasonal peaks, Mel Mandell, Aug., p. 22
Coping with the coming big changes—Part I, John Seaman, Sept., p. 70
Coping with the coming big changes—Part II, John Seaman, Oct., p. 88
Cutting downtime with network control and diagnostics, John Seaman, Aug., p. 68

D
Data-comm hardware: Now you get more for less, John Seaman, Nov., p. 52
Disaster recovery update, Mary Miles, July, p. 72
Disk/tape management system: Can you manage without it? Nov., p. 120

Annual Index of Articles—1980

Don't make—buy!, D. Whieldon, July, p. 36

E-F

Edp insurance: Finding the right words, Martin Lasden, Feb., p. 72
Effective project management, Martin Lasden, Mar., p. 49
Expandable system insures smooth growth, Feb., p. 118
Finding oil: Mini data cartridges do big job, Mar., p. 100
French and English spoken here, June, p. 134

G-H

Games played between users and providers, M. Lasden, Oct., p. 72
Have terminal, will travel, Martin Lasden, May, p. 70
Help for harassed executives, May, p. 132
How to charge users, Jan Snyders, July, p. 62
How to interview for scarce professionals, Scott Upp, July, p. 54
How to keep ddp pros happy, D. S. Pottruck, Sept., p. 90
How to keep users happy..., L. Secrist, Feb., p. 93
How to pick "friendly" terminals, David Whieldon, Sept., p. 38

I

Implementing a data-communications network, June, p. 46
Impress top management and reap the rewards, Nov., p. 124
In-house cpu chosen over time-sharing, Mar., p. 90
Is your data center...overweight? S. R. Ruth, Feb., p. 26

K-L-M

Keep your data entry up to date, Martin Lasden, Apr., p. 51
Labor costs cut..., Feb., p. 104
Long life for your tapes, William A. Bernett, Mar., p. 81
Make or buy. . .Software, processing, maintenance, and facilities management, too, John Seaman, Dec., p. 42
Managing programmers to work harder and happier, Jan Snyders, Martin Lasden, Oct., p. 34
Mission imprecise? MIS/dp needs a charter, D. Whieldon, Nov., p. 94
MIS/dp budgets..., M. Lasden, July, p. 24

O-P-R

Office automation rolls along, Sept., p. 30
Office automation: Still in the future? Nov., p. 27
One picture—worth many words, May, p. 106
Optical company prescribes new specs. . .for itself, Mar., p. 96
Planning for office automation, Dec., p. 30
Political obstacles to DBMS, James Landerkin, Sept., 64
Productivity packages for manufacturers, Jan Snyders, Nov., p. 78
Productivity quadrupled via CAD, Mary Miles, Mar., p. 94
Put your communication style to the test, Your career, Dec., p. 88
Raising office productivity... through metering, David Whieldon, Apr., p. 73
Recycling displaced, dissatisfied pros, Martin Lasden, Nov., p. 36
Report on transborder data-flow policies, P. McCarter, Sept., p. 92

S

Salary survey: How do you stack up? Part II, J. Snyders, Jan., p. 42
Save tape, dollars, Oct., p. 121
Scribbling your way to the top, Oct., p. 127
Self-management: Key to managing your time, Sept., p. 114
Selling systems by computer, Martin Lasden, Feb., p. 100
Shepherding $25 billion, Feb., p. 120
Should MIS report to the president? Martin Lasden, Aug., p. 54
Shrinking gracefully: How dp copes with a company downturn, Perry J. Davis, May, p. 94
Snyders on the software highlights of '80, Dec., p. 74
Software can extend...hardware! Part II, J. Snyders, May, p. 46
Software slashes work by 80 percent, June, p. 68
Staying the inflation-recession monster, D. Whieldon, Jan., p. 22
Strong trend to DBMS confirmed, Dr. Judd Q. Bartling, July, p. 90
Success in software, Jan Snyders, June, p. 71

T

Take a closer look at COM, Dec., p. 92
Taking drudgery out of documentation, J. Snyders, Mar., p. 74
The capture, care, and cost of a good dp professional, Jan., p. 108
The Holy Incantation, Oct., p. 124
The learning business helped by new office system, May, p. 126
The new thrust in minis, Oct., p. 130
The new Zip code...boon or nightmare? L. Lucas, June, p. 66
The pursuit of happiness—Make employee training pay off, Jan Snyders, Apr., p. 42
The smart way to pick word processors, T. Wilds, Jan., p. 71

U-V

Update on printers and plotters, David Whieldon, Aug., p. 35
Versatile system plays watchdog at medical center, Mary Miles, Jan., p. 110

W-Y

What comes first? Smart ways to set up dp priorities, Martin Lasden, Jan., p. 56
What happens to dp/MIS executives when the company is taken over? M. Mandell, Apr., p. 30
W(h)ither DBMS? Feb., p. 46
Women in management, J. Snyders and M. Miles, Aug., p. 90
Word-processing packages for cpus, Jan Snyders, Jan., p. 79
Worth your attention at NCC, May, p. 111
You CAN merge dp and wp, Paul H. Cheney, Oct., p. 110